On 1/10/67 source advised that he had not seen [redacted] recently until that morning when he saw [redacted] driving West on Lake Street in the Northlake area. [redacted] now has 1967 Illinois license [redacted] on his car.

Source stated that [redacted] continues to frequent the Club 20. [redacted] who used to [redacted] the El Marrocco is now [redacted] at the Club 20. Source is certain that [redacted] controls [redacted] of the Club 20. [redacted] is a decent man but a number of years ago got in trouble with [redacted] and [redacted] gave him help and has more or less owned him ever since. b6 b7C b7D

Working at the Club 20 are [redacted] (LNU) who used to work at the joint on 32nd and North, Stone Park, and a girl named [redacted] (LNU), a former stripper from Cicero who is of Italian extraction dances there and waits on tables. (This is possibly [redacted]

[redacted] still frequents the Club 20 and [redacted] him from the Cicero days. She indicated he was a big man in Cicero at one time. [redacted] is a frequent visitor to the Club 20 and apparently a good friend of [redacted]

Source advised that he had heard [redacted] and others at the Club 20 that [redacted] had paid $25,000 to get his license at the "Strangers in the Night" and furious over the fact that he could not get it even after such a payoff. Source stated he has it on good authority that the money was actually passed in an envelope and that the fix was in either with the Judge handling the case or with someone at the Illinois Liquor Control Commission.

Source advised that LOUIS "The Mooch" EBOLI is now the acting outfit chieftan in Stone Park, Illinois and is apparently acting in behalf of and for some higher placed hoodlum. EBOLI also has all the pinball, pool table, and cigarette machines in Joe's Place, the former Halfway House, in Northlake. EBOLI controls the chief of police in Stone Park who was handpicked by the "outfit". EBOLI was arrested about 6 months ago and is charged in court at Oak Park, Illinois for having a payoff pinball machine next door to the Stone Park PD. b6 b7C

[redacted] would not allow EBOLI to put his pool tables in the El Marrocco and EBOLI definately represents another outfit faction. b7D

Source advised he has not seen SAM BATAGLIA going to the farm by way of Lake Street lately and feels the newspaper accounts of his farm and visitors there have made him very gunshy lately.

On March 15, 1967, and March 28, 1967, [redacted] b7D was contacted at which time he advised the Ponderosa Grille, 23rd and North Avenue, Melrose Park, is fencing Italian knit jackets for $18.00 each in lots of five or more. They also have candy for sale by the case. Source is of the opinion this hot merchandise but he has no idea as to the source of it.

Source advised there is [redacted] Source understands one [redacted] (LNU) is operating this location and that bets can be called in to this spot after 10:30 AM. Source states he will attempt to come up with the telephone number at this spot. He suggests that no immediate investigation be undertaken on this location as to do so might jeopardize him. b6 b7C b7D

Concerning LOUIS EBOLI, source advised he has not been in Melrose Park for quite some period of time and he has heard that he has something going in Stone Park in regard to pinball machines. Source stated [redacted] operates the Tri-Rec Supply Company, but that he has never seen Louis Eboli visit [redacted] at this location.

With regard to [redacted] source stated he counts the money he collects from pinball machines [redacted] The Harlo Grill in Melrose Park [redacted] for [redacted] and collections from this location are made twice a week as the coin boxes in the machines are not large enough to hold the take for more than a few days at a time. He also advised that the patrons line up to play the machines at the Harlo Grill. He further advised that Don and Pauls, 25th and Lake, continue to operate their pinball machines and he estimated [redacted] and each time collections are made and because of the activity they are made twice a week. Sometimes at the Harlo Grill collections are made three times a week because of the heavy play. b6 b7C b7D

Source advised that last Tuesday he observed twenty-two men all operating under the aegis of [redacted] practically fill up Sperando's Restaurant. They bought no food and spent no money and the regular customers had to go elsewhere as there was no room available. Source stated brown envelopes containing

On May 15, 1967, [redacted] who [redacted] Illinois, telephone number [redacted] asked the writer to pay him a visit.

[redacted] advised he had been visited by [redacted] and LOUIS EBOLI the [redacted] at which time [redacted] inquired as to whether [redacted] still had [redacted] on which project [redacted] was attempting to secure a loan. [redacted] told [redacted] quite some time ago. [redacted] explained that a real estate broker, name not now recalled, but who had an office on Mannheim Road, had visited him a couple of years ago and asked [redacted] for EBOLI who wanted to build the King Arthur Apartments. [redacted] stated [redacted] and that this real estate operator wanted to split the commission with [redacted] for this amount his commission alone would have been $100,000. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] wanted [redacted] to see whether he could [redacted] in the Addison area as [redacted] told [redacted] because of the Weston project there was going to be a great deal of activity in the real estate business in and around Addison in the immediate future and that real estate prices would double and triple. [redacted] in Addison and Bloomingdale and also that "they are going to own Addison."

[redacted] indicated he had been in contact with [redacted] of the school board in Addison and is planning to run for Mayor. [redacted] got the idea that [redacted] was in some way associated with [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] also mentioned he was working with [redacted] of the Addison Savings and Loan, and that he was trying [redacted] was going to assist in securing the proper village zoning as he was well connected.

[redacted]

[redacted] also spoke of working with a real estate operator named [redacted] who is a millionaire and offices on [redacted]

[redacted] also indicated to [redacted] that he was the owner of two twelve-flat buildings located in the colored section of Maywood and that his attorney, [redacted] had secured two loans of $90,000 each on these buildings. [redacted] did not know the exact location of the buildings or the financial institutions making these loans. however, source did learn that [redacted] is apparently [redacted] regular attorney and is acting as a front for [redacted] on all of his properties. [redacted] also told [redacted] he was working with individuals named [redacted] and [redacted] who are trustees on the board of the City of Addison. [redacted] got the idea that both of these individuals were in somebody's hip pocket and [redacted] kept referring to the fact that "they are going to own the town." Source further learned that the Mayor of Addison, HARRY WERTHMAN, is a very close associate of [redacted]

b7D

Source advised he had borrowed money from [redacted] a couple of years ago and [redacted] to satisfy this loan, but the loan was of such a nature that [redacted] was to make payments of the last [redacted] stated he no longer owes [redacted] any money but that [redacted] and still owes the [redacted] intimated he was frightened of what [redacted] might do to him if he actually tried to collect the money which is due him and [redacted]

b6
b7D

On May 16 and 17, 1967 [redacted] stated he had been visited on the night of [redacted] by LOUIS EBOLI alone at which time [redacted] stated he told EBOLI that he expected [redacted] he owes him, however, [redacted] told the writer that he never expects to get it and feels it is worth a [redacted] to have [redacted] owe him rather than the other way around.

[redacted] told EBOLI he had been unsuccessful in his effort to make any loans in behalf of property which [redacted] hoped to purchase.

He advised that although [redacted], who resides in [redacted] Illinois, was recently arrested in a prostitution raid by the County Police, she is again in operation in Franklin Park and has two prostitutes working for her out of an apartment which is located about [redacted]

Informant advised that the [redacted] (LNU), whm he had previously furnished information on and who was reputedly gaining stature as a powerful hoodlum in the River Grove - Franklin Park area has been identified to him as LOUIS EBOLI. He advised that EBOLI has apparently succeeded [redacted] as the hoodlum who oversees illegitimate operations in that locality. b6 b7C b7D

Informant advised that the [redacted] which is located at [redacted], Illinois, is operated by one [redacted]. He advised that [redacted] has hoodlum connections; however, believes he is vulnerable to arrest if the activities at the [redacted] were investigated. He advised that go-go girls, many of whom he believes are in the 16 year old bracket, dance continuously from 3:00 p.m. until 12:00 midnight on three separate shifts. He advised that persons who frequent this lounge have suggested that many of these girls are products of broken homes and in addition to their go-go dancing have been persuaded to become involved in prostitution.

ADMINISTRATIVE

Extensive investigative period is noted; however, this is due to the fact this is an initial report. This case was opened on January 16, 1967, to explore initially the identity of the subject. It was considered being closed administratively up to July 1, 1967, inasmuch as it was felt further investigation was not warranted at the time. Subsequent information as set out determined that subject was, in fact, the son of THOMAS V. M. EBOLI of New York.

It should further be noted that information concerning the subject has been reported on a continuous basis in the case captioned, "GUIDO DE CHIARO, TRUE NAME GAETANO DE CHIARO, AR; Bufile 92-8672, Chicago file 92-1875." A considerable amount of information concerning the subject was also reported in case captioned, [redacted] AKA, IGA; Bufile 162-1377, Chicago file 162-530." b6 b7C

A copy of this report is being submitted to the New York Office for information purposes inasmuch as the subject is the son of THOMAS V. M. EBOLI, also known as TOMMY RYAN, the acting head of the Genovese Family of the La Cosa Nostra.

CG T-7 advised in March, 1966, that LOUIS "LOUIE THE HOOCH" EBOLI operates coin machines for the JOSEPH GAGLIANO group and controls Scopitone machines at O'Hare Field. [redacted] owns the Tri-Bee Supply Company, in Melrose Park, Illinois, with [redacted] who is the son of a former hoodlum who was murdered some years ago in gangland style in Melrose Park.

CG T-7 further advised that the EBOLI brothers are either sons or nephews of a New York hoodlum who was arrested at the Appalachian meeting in New York state in November, 1957. According to the informant, LOUIS EBOLI makes contacts on behalf of JOSEPH GAGLIANO in efforts to place certain individuals as operators of bars in the Stone Park and River Grove, Illinois, area.

IV. Criminal Activities

CG T-8 advised in November, 1967, that "LOUIE THE HOOCH" EBOLI is reportedly the acting chief of the Chicago "outfit" interest in the Stone Park, Illinois, area. EBOLI works for his uncle, GUIDO DE CHIARO, at M & D Music, and is also closely associated with JOSEPH GAGLIANO. The informant advised that it is believed that EBOLI is in charge of gambling and "juice" in several of the western suburbs including Stone Park, Franklin Park, Schiller Park and possibly River Grove, for the GAGLIANO group.

CG T-9 advised in March, 1967, that it is rumored that LOUIS EBOLI is taking over a lot of the Chicago syndicate's action in the Stone Park, Illinois, area, especially in pinball machines and gambling interests. [redacted], operates the Tri-Bee Supply Company, in Melrose Park, Illinois. The informant advised that [redacted] is reportedly not extremely close to [redacted] and is believed to not be involved in any illegitimate enterprises with LOUIS EBOLI.

CG T-10 advised in June, 1967, that "LOUIS THE KNOCK" KNOLL has succeeded [redacted] as a power in the Chicago outfit's interest in the River Grove and Franklin Park, Illinois, area. KNOLL is reportedly to be active in juice collection, gambling and illegal pinball operation, and is allegedly working directly under JOSEPH ACCARDO for the 26th STREET group.

CG T-11 advised in November, 1964, that "LOUIS THE KNOCK" KNOLL is a juice man who collects for the Chicago outfit in the Melrose Park, Illinois, area. The informant advised that KNOLL is a [redacted] JJ. The informant described [redacted] as a bookie and juice collector who at one time worked for [redacted] GUIDO DI GRADO.

CG T-12 advised in March, 1966, that "LOUIS THE KNOCK" KNOLL distributed football parlay cards during the 1965 football season in the Melrose Park area for the Chicago outfit. KNOLL reportedly works under the direction of his uncle, GUIDO DI GRADO. The informant further advised that [redacted] the owner of Tri-Boy Supply Company, in Melrose Park, [redacted], whose father was killed in gangland slayings in the 1930s, ran and operate Tri-Boy Supply Company. [redacted] was the owner of Vaughn Insurance Agency in Melrose Park at the time of his slaying in the late 1950s.

An article appearing in the "Chicago Tribune", January 6, 1963, entitled "2d Battaglia Suspects Jailed Brother Ran Ad Rackets Here", states in part, the following:

> "Joseph 'Cowboy' Battaglia, brother of imprisoned mob chief, Sam Battaglia, has become the Mr. Fix of west suburban rackets.
> "The 52 year old Battaglia is the overseer of rackets in Melrose Park, with Louis 'The Knock' Knoll, a son of Tony Knoll, powerful New York mafia boss, as the strong man of nearby Stone Park.
> "The rackets in Stone Park were placed under the care of Knoll, previously known only as a headknocker and gambler adept in the use of a baseball bat as a disciplinary measure.

"Eboli's only emergence as a gangland boss is credited by investigators to his impressive mafia connections. His father, sometimes known as Tommy Ryan, is reported to have taken the reins of the Vito Genovese mafia family in New York City, after Genovese went to prison on a narcotics charge.

"Proof of Eboli's promotion is found in his assignment of a chauffeur and body guard, Dominic "Diesel" De Santis, a 42 year old parolee from the Illinois State Penitentiary. De Santis was paroled from a ten year to life sentence for the sale of narcotics in 1965.

"When he isn't chauffeuring Eboli, De Santis works at a juke box company in Franklin Park, operated by Guido De Chiaro, Eboli's uncle and a close associate of Paul "The Waiter" Ricca, the mob's elder statesman....."
